This is a new development of over 3,800 homes built on 12 acres of open green space, landscaped gardens and a park with Wi-Fi.

Situated just minutes from West Ham Station, it will be one of the most convenient developments in London, with three Underground, National Rail and DLR lines providing fast and regular connections to the City and beyond.

With a new school, independent bars and cafes, restaurants and a community center in the centre, it will be one of the most exciting regeneration schemes in London.
