This is the new residential community in the heart of Borough, SE1. Set in the former home of the London Fire Brigade, it connects past, present and future through a mix of Grade II listed buildings and the finest contemporary architecture, set around a central courtyard for a traditionally different take on modern living.

The project offers a choice of new build and period conversions ranging from studio apartments to 3-bedroom duplexes, with a total of 199 homes. It's a unique development carefully complimented by a beautifully designed range of relaxed yet luxurious amenities, enabling you to enjoy the ultimate in modern city living.
