Ližnjan is a charming place located in the southern part of Istria. Ližnjan offers a unique combination of natural beauty, rich history and a peaceful way of life, which makes it an attractive destination for real estate investment. Ližnjan has all the amenities of a higher city, but at the same time it has retained the charm of a small fishing village that cares for its residents.

This beautiful three-room apartment of 100 m2 is located on the last, second floor of a building with only 3 apartments, and the building is located in a closed fenced complex. The apartment was built in 2019 and is fully equipped and is being sold as such. The apartment also has a private roof terrace with a view of the beautiful nature and greenery, the bay of Kuje and the island of Cres.

The apartment consists of two bedrooms, toilet, bathroom, living room and kitchen, large and spacious terrace. The apartment also has two outdoor covered parking spaces. The two-year stay and the terrace also offer a view of the sea and the islands. The apartment is located exactly 700m from the first natural beach where you will surely enjoy the crystal water and the islands in the distance.
