Poreč is located on the west coast of the Istrian peninsula and is a very attractive and popular tourist destination. A place where you can find your new home in addition to neat green areas, well-kept beaches with plenty of accompanying facilities.

The proximity of the now former borders of Slovenia and Italy, not a great distance from Austria and even Germany, make it easier to make the decision to buy an apartment.

The apartment is located on the first floor, which can be reached by an external staircase.

The size of the apartment of 163 m2 has a well-designed layout.

It consists of three large bedrooms, three bathrooms, a large and spacious living room and kitchen, toilet, storage room. The apartment has as many as 4 terraces, as well as a large roof terrace of 128 m2. All the ceramics in the apartment are of top quality Italian design, the bathrooms are also modernly equipped.

The apartment has two parking spaces.

I am at your disposal for more information about this beautiful apartment.
