Novi Zagreb, Gornji Čehi, residential building with elevator, approx. NKP 1,200 m2 on a plot of land of 940 m2.

The building has 15 residential units and each apartment has its own garage.

It is predicted that the high-rise roh bau will be completed by the end of this year, which means that the building will be completely built and the aluminum joinery will be installed and the facade will be completed. A solar power plant is planned on the roof of the building, by buying an apartment you get co-ownership and profit. Completion and occupancy is expected at the end of summer 2024.
