Medulin is one of the most sought after and desirable destinations in Istria.

A rich municipality that continuously invests in its development, and it is not surprising that there is a high demand for real estate in Medulin. It is decorated with beautifully landscaped green areas, an increasing number of bicycle paths and other tourist facilities that make it attractive for investment or living.

This detached house with its 240 m2, on a large and well-kept garden, is a good investment opportunity.

It consists of three apartments, a total of 6 bedrooms, 4 bathrooms, 3 kitchens, two terraces and one balcony. All apartments are air-conditioned. It is only 300 m away from the nearest beaches.

The apartments are fully furnished and are successfully rented during the summer months.

There is parking for several vehicles in the garden.

We are at your disposal for additional information.
