In Pula, in the very center of the city, near the city market and all important facilities, there is this beautiful 140 m2 large and bright apartment located on the first floor of a residential building.

The apartment consists of four large, modern bedrooms, two bathrooms, a nice living room with access to the balcony and a view of the town square. Quality PVC joinery provides complete sound insulation. The owner has completely renovated the apartment, divided it into three separate units and successfully rents it as such throughout the year.

Each separate part of the apartment is air-conditioned, and the apartment is sold fully furnished.
