One of the oldest houses in Jelsa with an area of 600 m2 is for sale, completely renovated and right on the waterfront!

Upon entering the house, you will quickly see the excellence and quality of materials used in the renovation of this heritage home. Beautifully decorated and renovated in this magical place.

The house has 3 bedrooms, each with its own bathroom. Each room has satellite television, air conditioning and quality windows that allow you to shut out the noise from outside, offering a calm and quiet atmosphere for a good night's sleep. Each bedroom is decorated in an elegant fashion with warm colors, beautiful wallpapers and high quality furniture and mattresses. The living room, dining room and kitchen are within the same open living space that allows for easy communication and a sense of openness. Just like in the bedrooms, all the furniture in this house is of the highest quality and made of real solid wood. The overall impression of this house is luxury and comfort. However, the best part of this accommodation is outside. This house is made for spending time outside, especially in the summer. There is a huge terrace with a view of Jelsa and it is perfect for a pleasant stay outside. On one side, the terrace overlooks Jelsa, on the other, the private pool and summer kitchen.

Jelsa is one of the most famous places on the island of Hvar.
