It is more than a luxurious urbanization, it is a sustainable and innovative residential complex that has been designed to invite you to live as you have always dreamed of in the south of Spain. We are creating a community around an exceptional quality of life that encourages its residents to lead a healthier pace thanks to the wide variety of wellness services it offers. This, together with modern facilities, elegantly designed apartments and sky villas in an ideal location, is what distinguishes Higuera West from other complexes on the Costa del Sol.
