This luxurious five-bedroom villa has stunning views of the golf course and surrounding course and is set within beautiful private gardens with swimming pool. The influence of Moorish architecture is visible throughout this beautiful resort, with fresh, bluish courtyards, graceful arches and secluded terraces, and the villages are surrounded by lush landscaped gardens. Each property offers exceptional interior design and a comprehensive range of modern amenities: fully equipped kitchen including microwave, dishwasher and washing machine, air conditioning, underfloor heating, flat-screen TV and electric blinds on the windows. These villas have been carefully furnished to complement the size and layout of each property and all are completely turnkey. Every detail has been thought, considered and selected, from bathroom accessories to soft furnishings, kitchen appliances, LCD TV and audio system, everything has been carefully chosen. Our interior design team has received presentations from more than 20 Portuguese and international furniture companies and visited major exhibitions in several European countries to ensure that the furniture represents the best in style, quality and durability. We are confident that our selection will satisfy even the most demanding customer and we are particularly pleased that the overwhelming majority of the items have been manufactured in Portugal. Strict standards of quality of furniture have been established under the new tourist law in Portugal. The qualities of the materials and the manufacturing standards have been specified together with strict regulations on fire retarders; these have been complied with in all respects.
