Farm located between Albufeira and Guia. This property offers, in addition to an excellent location, a very high potential due to the construction area of 1562 m2. The entire construction area may be renovated or altered, since it is a construction prior to the year 1951. The main building is habitable, has three bedrooms, two living rooms, two bathrooms, kitchen, terrace, oven and several annexes. The large land has cultivated several fruit trees. Excellent investment. Make an already set up your visit.
