Fully ready to move in two-storey house with five separate bedrooms in a unique guarded complex. The complex is located in a wooded area in the prestigious town of St. Vlas, at the foot of the Stara Planina Mountains. The complex consists of detached and semi-detached houses, houses in a line; an apart-hotel and a chapel, not blocking the view to the sea from the other houses; two tennis courts and a swimming pool. The offered house has a size of 301.20 m2 and is ready to be furnished. It consists of a hall with kitchen and dining room, five separate bedrooms, five bathrooms with WC, guest WC and two patios. Provides for the construction of many common areas, contributing to the needs of the complex and encouraging active communication. There are many eco-trails, with beautiful panoramic views. Along the way you can see rare and protected species of plants and animals, some of which are included in the Red Book of Bulgaria, stone chapels with icons of Orthodox saints along the eco-trails, which makes the walk extremely interesting and curious. Along all of these trails there are information boards with maps about the mountain trails and the biodiversity that can be seen in the area. There are springs with spring water, several gazebos and backwaters.
