Recently refurbished apartment on the first floor, ideally situated on the exterior of Paseo de la Castellana. Offering two balconies with captivating views, this gem is located in the heart of the central Castellana neighborhood, adjacent to the Santiago Bernabeu Stadium. Renowned architect Antonio Lamela, the mastermind behind the remodel of the stadium and various sports city projects, designed this property. The apartment features three bedrooms and three complete bathrooms, two of which are en suite. One bathroom includes both a bathtub and shower, while the others are equipped with showers. The living room, dining area, and open-plan kitchen contribute to a seamless and elegant living space. High ceilings, natural wood finishes, LED ambient lights, and carefully designed light sets ensure excellent illumination throughout the apartment. This 120-square-meter haven comes fully furnished, providing a turnkey solution for your comfort. Wheelchair lifts in the entrance and entrance hall add an extra layer of convenience to this refined living space.
