Renovated luxury home with the highest quality located in a modern building in an excellent location, in Chamberí. The materials, finishes, textures and colors have been carefully selected to obtain an elegant and distinguished home, giving great importance to the interior design of the kitchen, bathrooms, dressing rooms and built-in wardrobes. The house of 146m2, has high ceilings, all the doors are from floor to ceiling, giving it a lot of character and visually expanding the spaces. Distribution: Large entrance hall with wardrobe and access to the reception area consisting of a large living room with three wonderful exterior windows in which two well-differentiated environments can be made: living room and dining room. Large, charming, modern and avant-garde kitchen, located in a separate room with a central island, furnished and equipped with high-end paneled appliances. Complimentary toilet. The rest area is completely independent from the reception area, it is made up of 3 bedrooms, the main one being en suite with a large dressing area and a large bathroom. Two secondary bedrooms with built-in wardrobes that share a renovated bathroom with an elegant design. Ducted air conditioning. The building has central heating and a doorman.
