In the vicinity of Kanfanar, in a quiet environment, an autochthonous villa is for sale, which forms part of a closed complex that will contain nine villas with a swimming pool.

A detached villa with a total net area of 186,15 m2 is located on a plot of 766 m2. It consists of the ground and first floors.

On the ground floor, there is an entrance hall, an open-space living room with a kitchen and a dining room, one bedroom with its own bathroom, additional guest bathrooms, a storage room, and a large covered terrace. An internal staircase leads to the first floor, where there are two bedrooms with their own bathrooms.

The spacious house of 766 m2 has a summer kitchen with a barbecue, an 8x4 m2 swimming pool with a sun deck covered with stone, and greenery with planted plants that will be watered through the irrigation system. Outside, there is an additional storage room and an engine room.

Two covered parking spaces paved with asphalt are planned.

Underfloor heating is planned on the ground floor and on the first floor, while cooling is provided by air conditioners (every room plus the living room).

The villa is oriented to the south and is open to light and sun almost all day, while at the same time ensuring maximum privacy for each individual house.

The villa will be built in a typical Istrian style, where the emphasis was placed on the materials with which such houses were built once upon a time.

The Demit facade is 10 cm thick, and it comes on the facade in combination with stone. Internal and external
