This property in Montenegro is located in an authentic setting, among ancient stone buildings. The historical and material value of single older homes for sale today only increases over time. In addition, these properties are in great demand for rent, especially among European tourists.

In addition, this place is particularly attractive for investment. Djurashevichi is located in the central part of the Lustica peninsula, in close proximity to the elite village of Lustica Bay. Due to the environmental friendliness of the region, proximity to magnificent beaches, as well as the powerful development of Lustica, the construction of new roads and infrastructure, the property has high investment potential.
