Recently renovated, this 147 m² property is situated in a privileged location. It has 4 bedrooms, three of them with en-suite bathrooms, and a kitchen equipped with top of the range appliances. It is offered fully furnished with custom-made designer furniture in wood, complemented by air conditioning and ambient LED lighting. The building has a lift. The neighbourhood of Sol is the most central of Madrid's neighbourhoods, a reference point for all peninsular and urban distances. Its name derives from its central square, Puerta del Sol, where the Kilometre Zero Plaque is located. In this area, which some call Sol-Gran Vía, we find many of the city's main attractions. Some of them are inside Puerta del Sol itself, others in its vicinity. Its shopping areas are among the busiest, sometimes to the point of overcrowding.
