The villa is located in a calm, cozy, picturesque location in Northern Cyprus. The same project in which this villa is located is a plot of olive trees 500 meters from the sea, in a town called Lapta. It is in the Lapte Mountains and the sea where each other is closest to each other, created in this mixed sea and mountain air, that the incredible landscapes are simply mesmerizing.

The villa has panoramic views of the sea and mountains. The complex itself will have a communal swimming pool with its own recreation area. There will be decorative fencing and lighting, landscape design and parking around the complex.
