The island of Brač, Donji Humac, extremely quiet location surrounded by greenery, 8 km from the sea, i.e. the town of Supetar.

There are three buildings on the land of 1780m2:

The first house offers a spacious atmosphere with a large living room, dining room and kitchen. Upstairs there are two bedrooms and two bathrooms, providing privacy and comfort. This house is ideal for family life.

The second house is a practical apartment with a kitchen, dining room, living room, bathroom and bed. This apartment can be used as an independent studio, perfect for guests or family members who want their own space.

The third facility, a closed summer kitchen, allows you to enjoy nature and fresh air during the warmer months.

The property also has a swimming pool with an area for sunbathing and dining, which adds to the overall experience. This is the perfect place to relax, enjoy the sun and refresh yourself during hot summer days.
