Two unique beachfront bungalows that provide accommodation that truly embodies natural beauty and style. The property is located on tranquil Coconut Island, just steps from the sea. This location perfectly combines privacy with proximity to major attractions, creating a unique living experience.

The bungalows are designed with spacious interior spaces filled with light, as well as panoramic views of the beach. Each of the bungalows integrates elements of the environment into the design. Here, the internal and external are combined into a single whole, creating an atmosphere of harmony and tranquility.

Coconut Island offers the privilege of immersing yourself in the natural beauty of pristine Thailand without losing access to all the amenities you need. This place offers the perfect balance for those who value peace and tranquility, but do not want to give up entertainment.
