Owned by one adult, without encumbrances, the property is available for a quick transaction, payment terms are negotiable.

This is not just another apartment; this is an investment with a unique location and villa layout (currently only ground floor villas are available with views of the greenery rather than the sea and with stairs instead of an elevator). The peninsula has already been developed, so the appearance of similar real estate in terms of location and level of service in Montenegro is unlikely. Price 1,150,000 EUR.
