At this level of the house we find 2 suite rooms with fitted wardrobes, another double bedroom with a bathroom at the next door, and the service bedroom with bathroom and fitted wardrobe. On the upper floor there is a multipurpose room, currently as a living room with access to the terrace, a master room, and another suite room. These two bedrooms also have an exit to the terrace with panoramic views over Barcelona. All the materials are of high quality and are in perfect state; parquet floor, aluminum closings, double glazed, heating by radiators and air conditioning by ducts. The corner property was built in 1990, it has concierge service and parking in the same property (the house has different parking spaces depending on the needs of the buyer).
