The apartment is located on the main floor of the villa and is embellished with original frescoes which decorate the vaults of the ceiling and create an elegant contrast with the modern furnishings. The precious French-made white marble fireplace testifies to the presence of Napoleon Bonaparte, who is said to have stayed in these rooms during his passage in the Principality of Lucca administered by his sister Elisa Bonaparte. The apartment enjoys excellent natural light due to the large windows overlooking the gardens and the majestic cedar of Lebanon in the park. Internally it is distributed on a double height floor with a mezzanine. On the ground floor is a large living area with a relaxation area, dining room and fully equipped kitchenette. Via a staircase from the living room is the mezzanine with a king sized bed, a second double bedroom suite also with a king sized bed and the marble fireplace, a bathroom and a mezzanine study.

The Villa

This idyllic full-service residential complex is immersed in the greenery of a centuries-old park which is enriched by over five hundred years of history. Situated on the hills overlooking the medieval city of Lucca, the villa has been beautifully and carefully restored as have the other suggestive buildings within the residential complex combining luxury, traditional rural tuscan style and modern design elements.

The property is in a strategic position just 40 km from Pisa airport, 70 km from Florence airport, and 15 km from Tassignano di Lucca airport which is suitable for private jets. The Villa offers easy access to numerous places of interest as well as cultural and food and wine itineraries whose tradition is celebrated all over the world.

The golden beaches of Versilia with the elegant Forte dei Marmi and the nightlife of Viareggio are just 50 km from the Villa. The heart of the Renaissance, Florence is less than an hour away while Milan, Rome and Venice can be reached in about 3 hours. The local stables and golf courses surrounded by greenery are also within easy reach. Numerous leisure activities can be booked directly at the reception which is open all year round with staff able to meet every need and with a video surveillance system to guarantee the safety and privacy of residents.
