Hvar, a large estate located in a unique location on the island's high ground, on a plot of 32,500 m2. It consists of three separate stone houses.

The first house is a detached building on two floors, ground floor and first floor, with adjoining terraces, with a total area of 100 m2.

The second object is a single-story building of 104 m2, which serves as a tavern with a large covered terrace.

The third building has 148 m2 and serves as a warehouse.

4,000 m2 of the area is a vineyard, and the rest is pasture and immortelle.

Infrastructure: access road (part paved, part macadam), water tank and solar panels.

This type of real estate is truly unique on the market and is ideal for all lovers of peace and solitude, only 1100 m from the sea.

It has great potential and can generate income for various business purposes.
