Brač, Postira, an exceptional property located in the second row from the sea.

It is divided into four floors, and has a total of six furnished residential units.

The ground floor is divided into a studio apartment, a one-room apartment and a separate room, while there are two one-room apartments on the first floor.

On the second floor there is one one-room apartment, and a two-story apartment connected by an internal staircase to the attic, where, in addition to the sleeping and working area, there is also a terrace with an open view of the sea.

All apartments are modernly furnished and functional. The floors are connected by an internal elevator.

The facade is made of high-quality stone from Brač, and almost every apartment has a wonderful view of the sea.

Thanks to its ideal location, proximity to the sea and charming Mediterranean surroundings, this property is excellent, whether it is a holiday property or an investment for tourism purposes.

I am available for any additional information.
