Project offers contemporary living just minutes away from the city. They respond to the confident tastes of discerning clients. Stone, warm iroko hardwood, luxurious marbles; every home at Aria draws upon natural materials that have been borne out of the earth. Modern architectural lines are carried through to the townhouses with striking cantilever terraces and double-height glass stairwells being key features of the facades. A perfect balance of materials, Aria Residences feature fairface concrete, natural stone and iroko framed terraces. The clusters are separated with landscaped greens ensuring optimal circulation and maximising privacy.
