Zagreb, Center. Spacious, fully renovated luxury three-room apartment with two balconies, close to Ban Jelačić Square.

The apartment consists of three large rooms, one of which could be converted into two, a kitchen, a bathroom, a toilet, and two balconies. After a complete renovation of the installations and wall, ceiling, and floor coverings, the apartment has not been used for residential or business purposes. It is filled with light, as natural light enters from three sides.

The apartment's location is perfect, right next to the main city square, providing the new owner with excellent connectivity to the entire city center, making it suitable for business purposes, such as an office.

Ownership is clear.
