Luxurious modern two-storey houses under construction with the possibility of building a swimming pool, located in a beachfront location, 8 minutes by car to Bourgas. The villas are in a unique location close to the sea and are completely private with their own yard and parking spaces. The layout of the houses is as follows: At the ground floor there is a living room, a kitchen-dining room, a toilet, a pantry, a veranda which leads out to the yard. On the first floor there are three bedrooms, one with dressing room, two bathrooms with WC and two terraces. The idea behind the houses is to create a special holiday and permanent residence just a short drive from the city. The houses are located in close proximity to the sea. Construction is scheduled to start in April 2023 and finish in December 2024.
