Milna is a sea-oriented municipality located on the west side of the island of Brac. All places on the island of Brac are well connected by state, county or local roads. There are also a large number of unclassified roads on the island that serve as bypasses or agricultural roads. The ferry port Supetar is about 20 km away from Milna, and the bus runs daily on the route Milna-Supetar. Excellent traffic connection with Split.
