Dubrovnik, Lapad: A stunning stone house with a 32 m² pool and an irresistible sea view, accessible only by foot, situated on a 710 m² plot.

The house, with a total area of 450 m², spans four floors, each designed as a separate apartment with individual ownership. It features both internal and external staircases, along with a beautifully landscaped garden. Fully furnished and divided into apartments, the property comprises 10 bathrooms and 12 bedrooms.

Located on the Lapad Peninsula, the most developed part of Dubrovnik, it is home to many of the city's hotels, beaches, residential, and commercial facilities.
