The house consists of 6 separate apartments and a spacious apartment on the last floor. From the windows and balconies there is a breathtaking view of the Bay of Kotor. Behind the house is a large terrace and a garden. The house is located close to the sea and the Adriatic highway, in a very popular tourist place, offering great investment potential, and also can be turned into a mini-hotel. Numerous small beaches, jetties, old stone houses, shops, café-bars and restaurants line the picturesque waterfront in both directions. Perast, a 15-minute drive, is considered a must-see historic gem amongst the Bay's coastal towns. Tivat, also 15 minutes, is home to Porto Montenegro, the new marina village complex for super-yachts. Budva, a 35 minute drive, is the country's largest holiday town and has its own well preserved walled Old Town. Dubrovnik airport (Čilipi) is a 1 hour 30 minute drive (plus border crossing), Podgorica airport is a 1 hour 45 minute drive, while Tivat airport is a 15 minute drive.
