Nestled in the heart of Petrovac, merely 100 meters from the pristine coastline, this hotel resents the pinnacle of luxury with its 5-star rating. The property spans two interconnected urban parcels, providing a seamless blend of modernity and elegance. This exquisite hotel comes with an approved project that includes an interior design concept and the endorsement of the chief state architect, ensuring a standard of excellence in every detail. Adjacent to the hotel, there is a two-story structure, with half of its ownership under the hotel's possession, offering additional versatility to the estate. With a gross building area of approximately 16,500 square meters in rough construction work, the hotel promises spacious and well-thought-out amenities.
