Well presented luxury villa in the much sought after urbanization of Gran Sol, in Calpe, with lovely views to the Rock of Ifach and the sea.

The villa is built over two floors and consists of four bedrooms, three complete bathrooms (one of them en-suite), living room with glassed in terrace which doubles up as a playroom or winter lounge, laundry room, small utility room, and a superbly large designer kitchen and separate dining room.

In addition it has filtered water in the kitchen, solar powered hot water system, solar powered pool heating, hot and cold air conditioning, gas central heating, double glazing, internet and internal and external alarm systems.

The outside space is simply amazing, it offers complete privacy and security as an external alarm system is in place.
