About the area:

If you ask the residents of Istanbul about the Bahcesehir district, you will be told that this is one of the most prestigious areas.

There are many beautiful residential complexes with luxurious architectural design and a high level of services and maintenance.

This area is located in the western suburbs of the European part of Istanbul, only 35 km from Istanbul Airport and Taksim Square.

In addition, the territory of the district favorably differs from other areas in its landscaping, which creates a favorable environmental situation and contributes to the improvement of residents, living in the area. Also, there are also many private villas, and the fourth largest shopping center in Turkey, Akbati, and the central highway E60 leads directly from the area to the center of Istanbul!
