Downtown Dubai hosts the city's best tourist attractions. The district also offers various choices of housing, shopping, and entertainment. Despite it being a busy area for plenty of tourists, residents do not feel overwhelmed because towers are well-spaced together and there are plenty of activities to do.

Parents also have the option of a number of nurseries and kids' clubs. What used to be a vertical community is now expanding as more villas are added to the district. If you're looking to live a vibrant and luxurious lifestyle, Downtown Dubai is the community for you!
