The residential complex is located in the Atasehir district - at the intersection of two main highways E5 and E6. Due to the presence of large transport hubs and districts of Umraniye, Uskudar and Kadikoy nearby, you can quickly get from here to any place in Istanbul. Atasehir is equipped with everything necessary for a full-fledged business life and the same rest. There are many shops and shopping centers in the area. Numerous educational and medical institutions within the complex will surely attract the attention of families with children. The main difference between the housing of this project is a large number of apartments, which offer a beautiful panorama of the Sea of Marmara, the Princes' Islands, the city and the forest of Aydos. The residential complex provides places for walking, a landscape area, swimming pools (indoor and children's) and a playground. There is a Turkish bath and sauna. There is a gym and two parking lots: covered and uncovered. There is constant video surveillance. Security of the object - around the clock.
