What could be better than buying luxury real estate in Turkey for a profitable investment of finances and obtaining Turkish citizenship. A residential complex located in one of the lively areas of Esentepe, with chic European architecture, and also located close to Kartal. Exceptional, sophisticated design is all about the complex in Esentepe, which is located at the same time in a noisy large metropolis, and at the same time in a quiet secluded place with nature, ideal for a relaxing family life. On the territory of the complex there are many walking paths, paths, benches for relaxing in the shade of green beautiful plantings. Beautiful ponds complement the luxurious interior of the complex. Play areas and playgrounds have also been created for children, and many other things necessary for a comfortable life. It is also worth paying attention to the fact that the object is located near the E-5 highway, and within walking distance of the metro station. All the necessary infrastructure for a quality life, namely kindergartens, schools, medical, educational institutions, shopping and entertainment centers is close enough to the residential complex. The residential complex includes 12 buildings, which are located on an area of more than 40 thousand square meters, and offer 865 comfortable, spacious apartments with terraces, where every detail of the interior is thought out to the smallest detail. On the first floors of the complex there are shops and coffee houses, and of course a large parking lot, and for practicing a variety there is a gym, an indoor pool and a sauna. During the design of the complex, all the important needs of the residents for their comfortable and cozy life were taken into account.
