Live in the city with its comfort or in nature with its tranquility? Why choose - you can combine! Our today's facility covers an area of 10,000 square meters and is literally surrounded by greenery. Truly fresh and clean air, as well as birdsong as a gift to every resident. You don't have to give up city amenities. The residential complex is located in the Göktürk district of the European part of Istanbul, close to the Belgrade forest, but not far from the city center and the international airport. A new metro station is being completed nearby, and 10 bus routes to different areas pass through the stop near the house at once. There are many schools, hospitals, shopping centers, theaters and cinemas, and other entertainment around. There are 242 apartments in the residential complex with layouts from 1+1 to 5+1. In such a variety, there is sure to be an ideal apartment for everyone. In harmony with nature and in harmony with civilization... If you dreamed of such a life in Turkey, do not delay viewing this object.
