In one part of Istanbul, the Bahcesehir district, there is a newly built multifunctional complex, which includes various premises: commercial and residential. During the three-stage construction, it is planned to build up about 105 thousand square meters. The first stage includes 747 apartments with floor plan from 1 + 1 to 5 + 1 and area from 59 to 243 square meters. Currently, there is an intensive development of Bahcesehir - a modern suburb of Istanbul, otherwise called the gates of the city. Its location is northwest of Lake Küçükçekmece. The district includes residential buildings and premises for offices, beautiful parks, many retail outlets: shops and shopping centers. Everywhere there are numerous food outlets - cafes and restaurants. Nearby are banks, schools and industrial facilities. The external structure is represented by two railway stations, a highway, a hospital, a couple of shopping centers, two picturesque parks and an aqua park. Advantages of the residential complex The residential complex has a high investment value: investments will pay off in a short time. It is located in the center of the district, close to the main transport hubs: highways, airport, railway stations. It has a well-developed external infrastructure, which includes many educational institutions, medical institutions and cultural facilities. From the internal structure there are a large number of food outlets, a parking lot, a market, a shopping center and a hairdresser. For lovers of sports and outdoor activities, there is a gym, several swimming pools - outdoor and indoor and SPA. For children there is a playground and a swimming pool. The object is guarded around the clock with constant video surveillance.
