New residential complex in the city of Istanbul. In the European part of the city, in the Beylikduzu area, you can buy apartments with 2 + 1 or 1 + 1 layouts overlooking the city or the sea. A huge advantage of the project is the absence of commercial organizations on the first floors of residential buildings. Beylikduzu is a picturesque, beautiful, dynamically developing area on the coast of the Marmara Sea with a well-developed internal infrastructure. For leisure, there are shopping centers, cafes, basketball and football grounds, mini-golf, billiards, tennis, a fitness center, a cinema, and a children's playground. Also, the project is provided with everything necessary for comfortable living - these are kindergartens, schools, universities and hospitals. Project with an area of 60,000 sq. m. includes 495 apartments located in three blocks, 34 offices and 10 premises for shops. There are 10 sq.m. for one person here. green spaces, there is a botanical park "Green Valley". Shops, bus stops and West Istanbul Marina are within walking distance. A minibus runs to the nearest public transport stop (3 km).
