This object is located in the Asian part of Istanbul - in the Atasehir district. The residential complex is located in the most prestigious part of the area. Adds value to it and transport accessibility: you can walk from the object to the new metro station in less than a minute. Atasehir is one of the new commercial centers of Istanbul. It has convenient access to the TEM and E5 motorways, as well as to the Eurasia Tunnel. You can also get from the residential complex to the Sabiha Gokchen Airport quickly. Within a radius of a kilometer from the residential complex there are two hospitals at once. The area has a stadium, many shopping centers and other infrastructure facilities. The project provides special opportunities for those who want to work close to home. It contains not only apartments, but also offices and commercial premises. The complex consists of two buildings. The first one contains apartments and offices. The second four-story building is reserved only for offices. Buyers have a wide choice of layouts. These are apartments from 1+1 to 3+1, some with large terraces. There are also duplexes with layouts from 2+1 to 4+2. they already have a terrace in each layout. A special advantage of the object is the modular internal partitions. If desired, in the space of the apartment it is easy to make redevelopment to suit your needs. The residential complex has a cozy green space for relaxation with comfortable garden furniture. The nearby pond makes this pastime especially enjoyable. Many shops and catering establishments are located on the first floors of buildings, so everything you need is always at hand.
