The Kepez district in the center of Antalya city has sparkled with completely new colors. Until recently, it was considered not the most prestigious, as it was a little far from the city and populated mostly by local residents. But lately everything has changed. Now there is a large residential complex, which has already been nicknamed "a city within a city." The area of its territory is 1,300,000 sq/m. This was enough to accommodate 19,000 apartments (for about 70,000 inhabitants), a beautiful park, a lot of commercial buildings and everything necessary for a comfortable infrastructure. This residential complex has several advantages. First, it is a large selection of apartments with different layouts (from 1+1 to 1+4). The apartments themselves can be sold with repairs already made and household appliances installed. Many of them have panoramic windows with beautiful views of the city. Many houses have public pools, recreation areas, gyms, playgrounds, etc. A potential resident does not need to leave the house to play sports, spend time with friends or play with children. But if such a desire has appeared, then it can be satisfied in local cafes along the banks of artificial reservoirs, in the park (there are special walking paths), in shopping centers. The close location of the road junction will allow residents of the "city within the city" to quickly leave in the right direction. If necessary, you can always use public transport, namely the tram or bus. At the same time, all important places (shops, hospitals, fire departments, police stations, kindergartens) are located within walking distance. Do not forget about safety. The residential complex is a closed area and is under constant guard. This should add a sense of calm to all residents.
