Luxury cottages are located in the Turkish city of Kalkan. It is enough to walk just a few kilometers from the center to find yourself in a cozy, well-maintained area. Not far from the luxurious villas, there are various cafes, restaurants, numerous shops, and a market. There is a school in the area. Therefore, the residential facility is ideal for any family. There are two cottages on the site, each of which has four floors. The project area is located on 657 sq.m. Remarkably, 537 are reserved for the natural zone. Each villa with the same layout is adjoined by an impressive indoor pool, located in the underground parking. You can use the artificial reservoir all year round. There is also a sauna, there is a place for a gym. The first floor of the cottage is occupied by a large living room. From it there is access to the veranda and the bedroom. On the second floor there is a kitchen, two bedrooms, a place reserved for a dining room. If the weather is fine on the balcony, you can relax, have breakfast, lunch or dinner. The villas are equipped with underfloor heating. It will come in handy in cold weather. Doorways and window frames are made of durable aluminium.
