We present to your attention a new object of complex development. Its construction is being carried out in one of the most prestigious districts of Istanbul - Nisantasi. The key phrase in this description is complex development. For the simple reason that on an area of 97,000 square meters there is literally everything you need. 62 apartments, 99 office premises, as well as a hotel with 146 rooms, a shopping center and parking for 600 cars - this is only a part of all the facilities of the complex. Inside there is enough space for equipped playgrounds, areas for recreation and walks, and for sports. The location of the complex speaks for itself. It is difficult to imagine a more central point in the city. Only 5 minutes to Taksim, 10 to Mecizhiköy, 15 to Zinçirlikuyu, 18 to Levent and 40 minutes to Istanbul Airport. Medical and educational institutions are located within walking distance. Since the property includes the restoration of historical objects located on the territory, the developers and architects have developed such a style to harmonize as much as possible with the historical style of architecture of the surrounding buildings. But at the same time, the new building meets all modern standards, and will become an absolutely comfortable home for future owners.
