A new residential complex was built on the sunny coast of the Marmara Sea. Located in the Kazlychshme quarter in the Zeytinburnu district. This area is considered the European part of Istanbul. The project belongs to the luxury class and occupies 110 thousand m2. The apartments of the complex are designed in the style of a penthouse and a loft and have a layout of 0t 1 + 1 and up to 5 + 1. The living area of the apartments starts from 55 m2 and goes up to 545 m2. In total, the complex provides 1481 apartments with stunning sea views. Not far from the complex is the Eurasia Tunnel, Ataköy port, IDO Yenikapi and IDO Bakirkoy terminals, TEM, E-5 highways. Running and walking areas, as well as a sailing club where sailing classes are held, are located 100 meters from the residential project. The architects of the complex managed to translate into reality the amazing concept of "new urbanism". They managed to preserve the historical and cultural heritage, restore and restore historical buildings. In addition to the amazing architecture, the complex provides a club for children, an art and culture center, lofts, a music school, restaurants, cafes, boutiques and shops, a clothing workshop. The highlights of the project include a bridge connecting the residential complex with the embankment area. This area offers a bewitching and stunning view of the sea.
