Nisantasi is the most fashionable and prestigious district of Istanbul, the birthplace of Turkish culture and art. Here history meets modernity and luxury. This wealthy area is known for its diverse attractions and is considered one of the most popular areas in all of Turkey. In this rich area you can buy any property - both residential and commercial. The developer did his best and built the latest project of complex modern development. Everything you need for a comfortable and carefree life is located on an area of 97 thousand square meters. This complex includes 99 modern offices, an ultra-luxury hotel with 146 rooms, a huge shopping center with many boutiques, 62 comfortable and spacious apartments, as well as multi-level parking with 600 spaces. There are also shopping areas that can be used for branded goods stores and for cozy cafes and restaurants. The shopping center in this project is made in a modern European style, and the design of each floor is different from each other. Next to this center is the metro, one of the exits of which is designed so that buyers can immediately get to the third level of the shopping complex. The project includes many public facilities that satisfy the needs of comfortable living in the rhythm of modern life.
