Nisantasi is a prestigious residential area in the city of Istanbul. There you can find various fashion boutiques, stylish restaurants. It is in this area that a new complex development facility is located, which provides for the systematic construction of residential buildings and public buildings interconnected. It literally has everything in it. The complex development in Nisantasi on an area of 9700 square meters will include: 99 office premises, 62 apartments, 146 hotel rooms, a large shopping center and a parking lot with a capacity of about 600 cars. Also in the complex you can find trading platforms that are ideal for a small cafe or even a large bakery. And this is only a part of all the objects of the complex. One of the main features of the project is a direct exit from the metro to the third level of the shopping center, the space of which will be used as a gallery. The design of this complex is a whole work of art, thought out to the smallest detail. Each floor will be decorated in an individual style.
