For sale four houses with total size 400 sq.m. under construction on the island of Kea. The houses are located on a plot of 4400 m² and each is 100 sqm and consists of ground floor and first floor. Additional construction is possible. All residences will have wonderful sea view. Kea island, also known as Jia, is the "gateway to the Cyclades", the sixth largest Cycladic island and at the same time the closest island to Attica, just 16 nautical miles from Lavrio, or an hour's boat journey. The island has a drop shape and a total surface area of 131 km², 85 km coastline, Kea currently has about 2,500 permanent residents. Despite the strong building development in recent years and the parallel gradual tourism development, it has managed to maintain its traditional character.
