Each villa reflects contemporary tropical style, and the interiors are expertly crafted to meet the unique needs of the owners. Despite the individuality of each property, the basic principles of design and engineering are maintained, providing lush shady gardens around the villa and spacious interior spaces.

These residences are designed in such a way that their founder and lead designer herself would like to live here.

The complex enjoys a privileged position in one of Phuket's most popular residential areas, ideally located about halfway between the Heroines Monument and the Laguna area. Bang Jo is a 10-15 minute drive from Phuket's most scenic beaches, Laguna Phuket Golf Club and just minutes from the vibrant Cherng Talay, Bang Tao and Surin areas. Also, the area is conveniently located in relation to the main transport arteries connecting it with the airport and leading international schools such as BIS and UWC.
