The new project of villas is a masterful combination of the undeniable power of nature and the refined luxury of everyday life. The name of the project comes from the Hebrew language mentioned in the Bible and emphasizes the importance of harmony between man and nature, confirming the close relationship between them. The project offers a quiet, independent life with all the amenities: an organic cafe, a yoga studio, a sauna, a meeting room. All this is framed by tropical vegetation and guarded around the clock.

Three different types of villas are at your disposal, suitable for both small and large families. The project provides three types of villas from 2 to 4 bedrooms, with a private pool and an amazing roof garden, which will allow you to feel one with nature every day.

It is worth noting that the villas are located in a secluded area in the Bang Jo area. Proximity to places such as Blue Tree, Boat Avenue, Robinson, Porto De Phuket, Lotus supermarket, Bang Tao and Layan beaches ensures that all needs of residents are met.
